

Yatma Diallo,

born in Senegal, has lived in Italy for over twenty years. His first dance experiences in Dakar, belong to the world of salsa and hip hop, disciplines that he continued to cultivate for many years in Europe as well.

In tango, after the first study experiences in Europe with Monica

Maria Fumagalli, current partner, with Susana Miller, Ana Schapira, Jorge Firpo and many others, he spent a period in Buenos Aires to deepen his studies, reaching, in a few years, interesting professional awards.

In 2019 he distinguished himself at the Milan Metropolitan Championships (Lombard selection for the World Cup) as the only dancer competing to get on the podium in all dance categories: tango, vals and milonga. In 2021 he was second in the Italian Metropolitan Championship, category: International Milonga. Semifinalist in tango at Buenos Aires Mundial 2021

In 2013 he obtained the CONI diploma of couple dance teacher.

Together with Monica Maria, he carries out an intense didactic activity with a permanent school in Milan, workshops in different towns of Italy, Europe, USA and Africa, trips in collaboration with Horca Myseria with which they created the "Vela y Tango" project, events and holidays for sailing and dancing tango in the harbors.

Since 2014 he has been president of the ASD "Mundo Milonguero".

As a TDJ with the name of El Africano Bien milonguero, also with solid professional training as a sound engineer, he worked for international events in Italy and
